B A ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE (CBCS System)

Complementary Course 3: EN 1231

Art and Literary Aesthetics

No: of Credits: 3

No: of Instructional Hours: 3 per week [Total 54 Hours]

Aim Introduce the multidisciplinary of Art and Literary Studies

Objectives:

1. Gain an understanding of various movements in art history and how they relate to literature
2. Engage with works of art that directly refer to literary works and also draw inspiration from art
3. Recognize how all forms of art is part of a continuum.

Course Outcome

CO 1: The student will be able to engage with literature in a broader, educated perspective.

CO 2: The student will be able to think with greater originality and independence about the complex interrelationship between different art forms.

CO 3: The student will be trained to engage sensitively and intelligently in new readings of literature.

CO 4: The course develops an understanding of the co-relation between literature, film, music and painting and encourages ways of reading and seeing which deliver insights into literary texts.

CO 5: Initiate students to implement the multidisciplinary scope of art and literary studies.

Instructions: This course is designed to draw out the relationships between art movements and literature. In the first two modules, the texts/pieces have been chosen to be representative of the various time periods in which these movements originated, so a comparative study of both the paintings, films and the literary works is recommended. The third module discusses music as literary text and the various ways in which this is manifested.

SEMESTER V
FIRST DEGREE PROGRAMME IN
B A ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE (CBCS System)

Open Course: 1 EN 1551.1 Communicative Applications in English

No: of Credits: 2

No. of Instructional Hours 3[Total 54]

Aim To excel in communicative capabilities

Objectives

1. Help the students overcome their inhibitions about speaking in English about their day-to-day life and learning experiences within and outside college
2. Develop them into clear, unpretentious and effective communicators, both in speech and in writing
3. Give them the rudiments of grammar, with an emphasis on the correct usage of the language in various contexts

Course Outcome

CO 1: Learners majoring in some subject other than English will have a working knowledge of the type of English that is required in real life situations, especially the globalized workplace.

CO 2: Well trained to write clear, well-framed, polite but concise formal letters and e-mails for a variety of purposes

CO 3: Acquire some of the soft-skills that go hand in hand with English –namely, the ability to prepare for an interview and face it confidently, the ability to participate boldly a group discussion and contribute meaningfully to it, the ability to make a simple and interesting presentation of 5-10 minutes before a mixed audience on anything that they have learnt in the previous semesters of the UG programme

NOTE TO COURSE INSTRUCTORS AND QUESTION PAPER SETTERS

This course does not have any “Core” reading material. A list of useful reference books and other resources has been provided, but it must be emphasized that none of them should be used exclusively, in the manner of core books. Instead the teacher and students must exercise their discretion and take whatever is useful from them.

Module I Talking about Oneself

- ☐ One's basic details –academic career from Plus 2 onwards
- ☐ One's home village or locality

- ☐ Family members and what they do
- ☐ Interests/hobbies
- ☐ Abilities and strengths (with illustrative examples/anecdotes)
- ☐ Weaknesses (with illustrative examples/anecdotes)
- ☐ Brief narrative with a few “highlights” of things learnt during the first 2 years of the degree programme (this could include curricular and co-curricular things such as participation in NCC or NSS or some club)
- ☐ Aims and ambitions in life (both career and social aims)
- ☐ Any one person who inspires or (in the past) inspired/used to inspire the student and proved to be a role-model for her/him
- ☐ A memorable experience in the life of the student and why it is so memorable

BALL GAME FOR BREAKING DOWN INHIBITIONS

- This may be played as often as possible with a small basketball or volleyball.
- The teacher and all the students in class stand in a circle around a cleared space either indoors or outdoors.
- The teacher throws the ball to a student randomly loudly saying, “My name is (her name) I come from (her home village/locality).
- The student has to repeat those sentences substituting the teacher’s name and place with her own and throw the ball back at the teacher. If she gets it correctly, the teacher throws the ball to the next student. If not the teacher repeats the utterance with a stress on the word/part to be corrected and throws the ball back to the same person.
- This is to be repeated till the student gets it right and also speaks in a voice loud enough to be heard by everybody.

Writing about Oneself

1. Basic Grammar: Gender Agreement, Number Agreement, Subject-Verb Agreement, Use of Articles and Tenses
2. Exercises –Note: Students need not remember the names of the tense forms but they must know develop the ability to use them correctly. Teachers handling this course can take 3 or more items from Module I and make the students write about them in a simple, conversational style. This writing can then be checked for gender and number agreement as well as the proper use of articles and tense forms and feedback can be given with a view to reinforcing their ability to write grammatically.

Module II Communicating with Others

1. INTRODUCING OTHERS

- ☐ Introducing a classmate to an audience mentioning their basic details, good qualities, interests and achievements and also narrating some shared experience or something that one has found striking about them
- ☐ Researching a celebrity and introducing a classmate as if he/she were that person

NOTE: The number of classmates and “celebrities” introduced like this by each student can be fixed depending on the number of students in the class and the time available.

- ☐ Compeering a programme

2. ROLE PLAY

- ☐ Opening and concluding conversations with familiars and strangers
- ☐ A student talking to a bank manager enquiring about study loans
- ☐ A traveler asking for help at a railway enquiry counter
- ☐ A tourist asking for information at an enquiry counter about places to visit in a new state, hotel rates, how to get to those places, etc.
- ☐ A citizen journalist reports on some special event or untoward situation happening near him/ her in the background

3. GROUP DISCUSSION on one or more of the following:

- ☐ Some issue of common concern from the students’ lives
- ☐ A recent news item
- ☐ A recent film

Guidelines

The first 2 rounds of discussion may be on non-controversial topics and the discussion group may be given some preparation time; the next 2 should be spontaneous and on slightly more controversial topics. The class may be split into 2 (or 4) groups. While one group is carrying on the discussion, another group of people may be posted to observe them. Each participant should have a watcher unknown to him/her, who will make notes on that person and give them to the teacher for a feedback. Points to be watched shall be –the student’s level of participation, body language, voice, manner, confidence level and overall contribution to the discussion. Through this method the principles of healthy group discussion can be “derived” and taught. Observer students should be required to take notes during discussion and the teacher should guide them in refining their notes.

4. INTERVIEW

- ☐ A brief recapitulation of how to prepare a CV or resume (since the students would have done this in their 1st semester)
- ☐ How to write an application letter to go with it
- ☐ Preparation for an interview: researching the subject/organization, the responsibilities on the job one is seeking –things to do on the previous day
- ☐ Non-Verbal factors: Dress, punctuality, body language, eye contact, sitting posture
- ☐ Types of interview questions: fact seeking, searching or opinion seeking, confirmatory, open and closed questions
- ☐ Ways of disagreeing politely with the panelists, refusing to take provocations, asking for clarifications
- ☐ What to do before and during a telephonic interview

Module III Letters, Mails and Notices

1. Drawing up brief notices for various events
2. Basic elements of an email and some points of netiquette
3. Formal letters and emails for the following purposes:
 - ☐ Applying for a job
 - ☐ Seeking information
 - ☐ Ordering a product
 - ☐ Making enquiries and bookings
 - ☐ Making a complaint
 - ☐ Giving negative feedback tactfully
 - ☐ Asking for help
 - ☐ Apologizing for mistakes made
 - ☐ Thanking people for services/help received
 - ☐ Writing a proposal for a grant/ project/ scholarship (basic structure)

Fine Tuning One's English

1. What is Mother-tongue Interference and why does it happen? –Speech sounds in English that are NOT found in Malayalam –some English sounds/words commonly mispronounced by Malayalis
2. 2-3 sessions of listening to British speech –2 -3 sessions of listening to American speech
3. Getting the most out of a dictionary –how to look for a word –some common words with multiple meanings (all widely used) –meaning of ‘connotation’, ‘pejorative’, ‘dialect’, ‘slang’, ‘expletive’ and ‘profanity’ with an example each
4. Making a 5-10 minute presentation on any topic chosen by the student and approved by the teacher
5. Writing for Social Media platforms and creating content for various purposes targeted at Social Media readers/ viewers
6. Personal blog writing

Total Instructional hours: 3 per week [Total: 54 hours]

A. Guidelines for Teachers:

1. The Project/Dissertation should be done under the direct supervision of a teacher of the department, preferably the Faculty Advisor for the sixth semester. However the work of supervising the Projects should be distributed equally among all the faculty members of the department.
2. The teaching hours allotted in the sixth semester for the Project/Dissertation [i.e., 3 hours/week] is to be used to make the students familiar with Research Methodology and Project writing.
3. A maximum of five students will work as a group and submit their project as a [single] copy for the group. The members of a group shall be identified by the supervising teacher. Subsequently each group will submit a project/dissertation and face the viva individually/separately.
4. The list containing the groups and its members should be finalized at the beginning of the sixth semester.
5. Students should identify their topics from the list provided in consultation with the supervising teacher or the Faculty Advisor of the class [Semester 6] as the case may be. The group will then collectively work on the topic selected.
6. Credit will be given to original contributions. So students should not copy from other projects.
7. There will be an external evaluation of the project by an External examiner appointed by the University. This will be followed by a viva voce, which will be conducted at the respective college jointly by the external examiner who valued the projects/dissertations and an internal examiner. All the members within the group will have to be present for the viva voce. The grades obtained [for external evaluation and viva voce] will be the grade for the project/dissertation for each student within that group.
8. The Project/Dissertation must be between 20 and 25 pages. The maximum and minimum limits are to be strictly observed.
9. A Works Cited page must be submitted at the end of the Project/Dissertation.
10. There should be a one-page Preface consisting of the significance of the topic, objectives and the chapter summaries.
