Don Bosco College Arts Day: A Festival of Imagination and Skill

Kottiyam: Jan 31: The vibrant College Arts Day celebrations at Don Bosco College culminated in a dazzling display of creativity and talent on January 31st. The three-day event, held from January 29-31, saw students pouring their hearts into various competitions and activities, making it an unforgettable experience. At Don Bosco College, the recent College Arts Day wasn't just another event on the calendar; it was a celebration of our students' incredible talents and unbounded creativity. Over three days, the campus transformed into a hub of artistic expression and joyful competition, embodying the spirit of our educational mission.

From January 29th to 31st, the college buzzed with excitement as students from all departments engaged in a wide range of activities. The inaugural day set a promising tone with literature and arts competitions like poster making and poem recitation, demonstrating our students' knack for visual and literary arts. These competitions not only encouraged individual expression but also fostered a sense of healthy rivalry and camaraderie among participants.

The highlight of January 30th was undoubtedly the performing arts. Singing, drama, and skit competitions brought the stage to life, with students showcasing their acting prowess, vocal talents, and storytelling skills. Each performance was a true testament to the countless hours of hard work, relentless practice, and deep passion that our students pour into their artistic pursuits. Every act reflected their commitment to excellence, creativity, and the desire to push their boundaries in the world of arts

The grand finale on January 31st was nothing short of spectacular. With events like a fancy dress show and an engaging street play, the audience was treated to a diverse array of performances that were both entertaining and thought-provoking. The judges had the unenviable task of selecting winners from a pool of outstanding talent, ultimately congratulating all students for their exceptional performances.

Principal Dr. Y. Joy's expression of gratitude to the students, faculty members, and staff was a fitting end to the celebrations. It was a collective effort that made the College Arts Day a resounding success. The teamwork and support from everyone involved truly highlighted the strength of our college community.

Special congratulations are due to the Department of BBA, which emerged as the overall champion. Their victory is a reflection of their hard work and dedication. However, the real victory belongs to every student who participated, for their contribution made the event vibrant and memorable.

As we eagerly anticipate next year's Arts Day, we carry with us the promise to make it an even grander celebration of talent, creativity, and cultural expression. The College Arts Day at Don Bosco College has once again demonstrated that our students excel not only in academics but also in showcasing their artistic brilliance across various forms of creative expression. Through such celebrations, we continue to uphold our commitment to holistic education

Dr. Rajeev Mohan inaugurates documentary screening and remembrance event at Don Bosco College, honoring legacy and culture.

The event, held at the College Auditorium, was inaugurated by Dr. Rajeev Mohan. The documentary screening was followed by a Q&A with Dr. Rajeev Mohan, where students got the chance to clear their doubts and share their experiences. The event provided a platform for students, faculty, and film enthusiasts to come together and celebrate the world of literature and cinema, fostering a deeper understanding of the intersection between both art forms.

The screening was engaging and thought-provoking, sparking lively discussions among the attendees. Dr. Rajeev Mohan's insights added a valuable perspective on the evolving nature of Malayalam cinema and its connection to literary traditions. His expert commentary left a lasting impact on the audience, motivating many to explore more about the subject.

In addition to the screening and Q&A, the event featured an informal gathering where students and faculty interacted over refreshments, exchanging ideas and forming connections. It served as an opportunity to build a community of individuals passionate about cinema and literature, strengthening the ties between academic and artistic circles.

The event also provided an opportunity for attendees to explore potential collaborations and projects, further enhancing the sense of unity and shared passion for the arts, bringing everyone together in a collective celebration of creativity. The event was well-attended by students, faculty, and members of the local community, who expressed their appreciation for such initiatives. Many attendees praised the event for its role in promoting cultural exchange and intellectual growth within the academic community.

PEDALS FOR PRIDE: 100KM CYCLE MARATHON CELEBRATES REPUBLIC DAY

Believers Church Medical College Hospital organized a 100km cycle marathon in Thiruvalla on January 26, 2025, as part of the Indian Republic Day celebrations. The event aimed to promote physical fitness, health awareness, and community engagement while celebrating the values of unity and national pride. This marathon was not just a sporting event but a platform to bring together people from different walks of life for a shared purpose. The marathon witnessed enthusiastic participation from cyclists representing all 14 districts of Kerala. Riders from diverse backgrounds, including students, professionals, and seasoned cycling enthusiasts, came together to challenge their endurance and showcase their passion for the sport. The scenic route, which covered various landscapes of Thiruvalla, added to the thrill and excitement of the event, making it an unforgettable experience for all participants. Medical teams and hydration stations were strategically placed along the route to ensure the safety and well-being of the participants, providing vital support during the long ride. Among the many dedicated participants was Abhimanyu, a proud representative from Don Bosco College, Kottiyam, took part in the marathon with great enthusiasm and determination. His participation marked a significant moment for the college, as he displayed remarkable endurance, skill, and perseverance throughout the marathon. As the race progressed, Abhimanyu pushed through challenges, demonstrating his strength and mental fortitude. His rigorous training, which he had committed to for months, was clearly evident in his performance, as he maintained a consistent pace, navigating difficult terrains and varying weather conditions. The crowd cheered as he crossed various checkpoints, and his positive attitude and sportsmanship were a testament to his character. Abhimanyu's success in the marathon is not just a personal achievement, but a proud moment for Don Bosco College, as it highlights the importance of discipline, hard work, and passion in pursuing one's goals. The event not only fostered a spirit of healthy competition but also served as a reminder of the importance of physical fitness, teamwork, and community unity in a rapidly evolving world.

B.Com Finance Edges Past B.Com Tax in Akil Memorial Football Tournament

In a thrilling encounter at the Akil Memorial Interdependent Football Tournament, B.Com Finance secured a hard-fought victory against B.Com Tax, winning by a narrow margin of 1-0. The decisive goal was scored by Thoufeek, sealing the win for his team in a tightly contested match. From the outset, both teams displayed strong defense and strategic gameplay, making it clear that neither side would give up easily. B.Com Tax showed great resilience, pushing forward and creating several potential goal-scoring opportunities, but the Finance team's defense stood firm, thwarting each attempt. The breakthrough finally came in the second half when Thoufeek capitalized on a well-timed pass and delivered a stunning goal, sending the Finance supporters into celebration.

Despite B.Com Tax's relentless efforts to find an equalizer, B.Com Finance's defense remained impenetrable, showcasing remarkable teamwork and tactical discipline. The Finance defenders remained composed under pressure, clearing several dangerous crosses and blocking shots that could have easily tied the game. As the final whistle blew, B.Com Finance secured the hard-earned victory, much to the delight of their jubilant fans. After the match, the B.Com Finance captain, Anto, took a moment to praise his team's determination and resilience, emphasizing their collective effort throughout the game. He also gave special credit to Thoufeek for his match-winning performance, acknowledging his timely goal as the key moment in securing the win for the team.
